

Scan to report
cicada hotspots:

Measures for Managing The Cicada Population

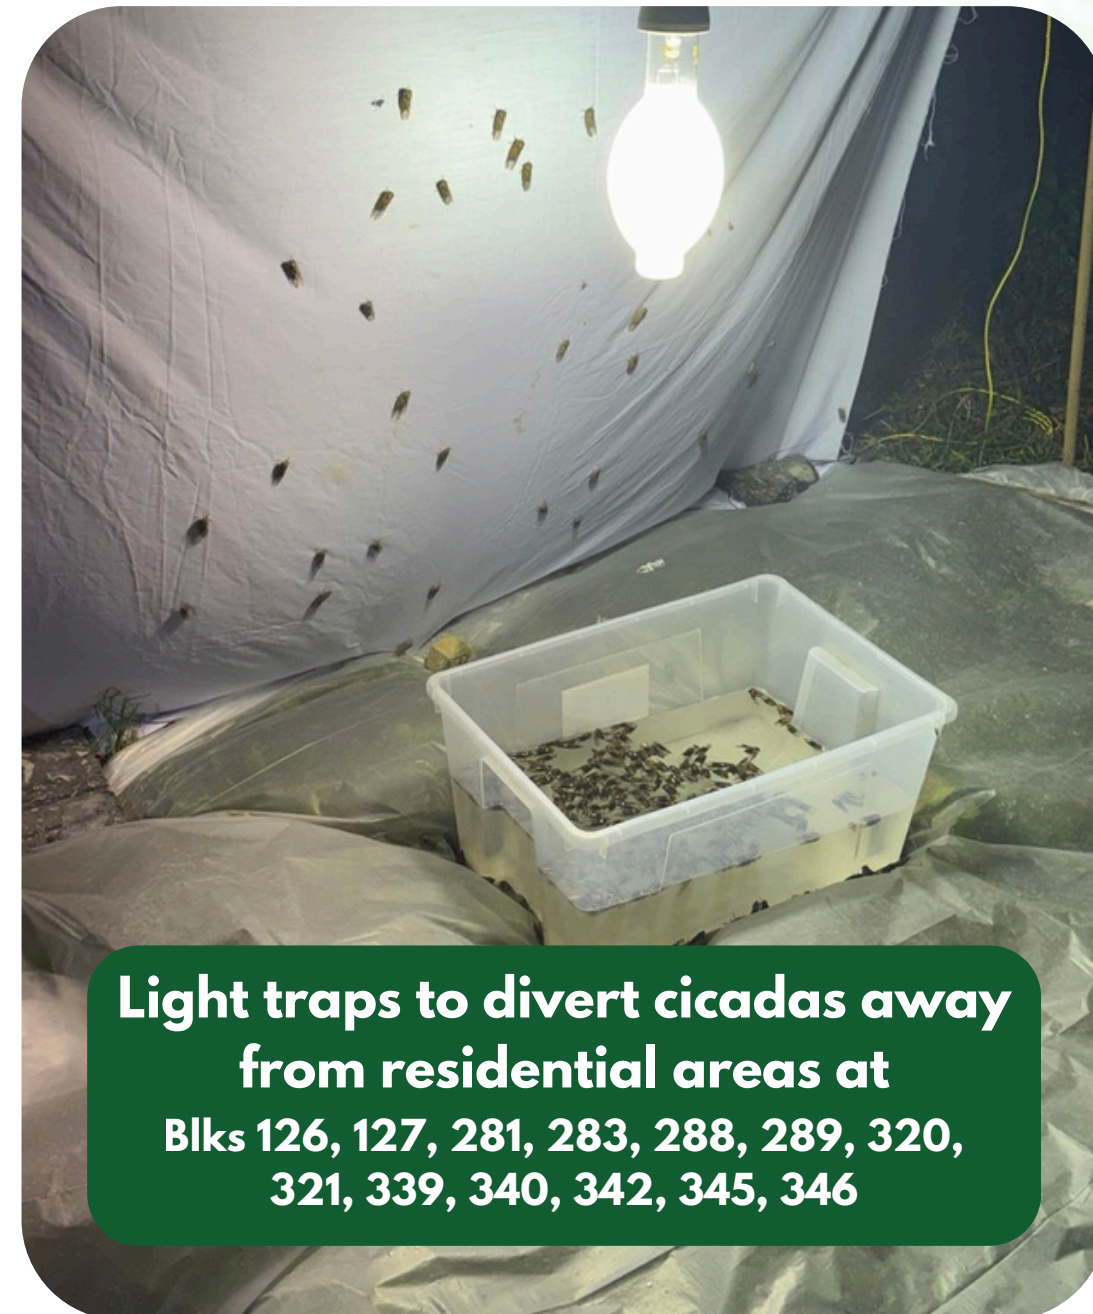

(adopted in consultation with the National Parks Board)

As of 20th April 2026

550

Trees wrapped with aluminium foil, and tarpaulin or coconut husk mats laid out to disrupt the cicada life cycle

Light traps to divert cicadas away from residential areas at Blks 126, 127, 281, 283, 288, 289, 320, 321, 339, 340, 342, 345, 346

Scan to report
cicada hotspots:

Measures for Managing The Cicada Population

(adopted in consultation with the National Parks Board)

As of 20th April 2026

Testing the Light Adjustment
Project to lower cicada attraction into corridors at Blks 321 and 339

Catching and removing cicadas at the corridors